

Pacific Dream

A good dessert that will fill your body with vitamins and antioxidants. Not only is it good, but a great way to bring in an extra helping hand from a younger family member. Many would probably call this a "fruit salad," but since my recipe focus on fruits found along the coast of the Pacific Ocean, I gave it a different name. Hawaii is known for its sweet Pineapple, New Zealand for their green kiwi fruit, South America for bananas, and California for the Oranges.
